What you can expect from us: We, the counselors of Minnesota Valley Lutheran Bible Camp (Camp Shetek), will strive to do our best at organizing wholesome activities and learning opportunities for the campers under our care.

- We will help the campers improve their interpersonal skills.
- Our goal will be to encourage each camper to “Let their Christian Light of Faith” shine for all to see.

What we expect from each camper: We expect each camper to follow and listen to each of the counselors, showing the appropriate respect to each counselor.

- Campers will be assigned to a cabin and to a team for the group activities when they arrive at the camp.
- A specific counselor will be responsible for a cabin and / or a team to help supervise, guide and teach the campers to work and play together.
- Campers will show proper respect to all other campers, respecting their privacy and belongings. We cannot be held responsible if an item is lost, stolen or broken.

What if a camper refuses to follow a counselor’s directions?

Steps will have to be taken to keep order and discipline within the Camp. We promise that we will use good Christian judgment when determining what behavior is inappropriate and what disciplinary action we need to take.

All during the camp week, we will be taking photos, videos, and recordings of activities. The majority of them will later be posted on our facebook page. (One of our activities is a photo scavenger hunt.) All multimedia shall be the property of Camp Shetek and will only be used in a God-pleasing way to promote the Camp. (You will find us on facebook @ “Minnesota Valley Lutheran Bible Camp”.)
